FROM PASTOR LEANNE

The start of a new school year was always an exciting time. The time getting ready: collecting all the supplies in the right colors, learning where the classroom is and meeting the teacher, seeing if any friends will be spending their days in the same room. New school years are filled with excitement and anxiety, uncertainty and learning, struggle and celebration. They are filled with the expected ad surprises. And for all those reasons we offer blessings over our students.

But, as has been for generations, schools continue to be a place where the adults in positions of power play out the politics of the day: issues of class, integration, gender and sexuality have gotten fought with schools as our battle field. It is no wonder when schools become the places where some have made children the casualties of fighting, and it's no wonder so many students are searching out places to be fully themselves and to be safe.

And for all those reasons we offer blessings over our students.

We bless and pray for our students and our teachers. We believe that they are becoming and growing into who God is calling them to be, unique and built for community.

We bless and pray for our students to find safe places and people—teachers and friends—to be wholly themselves. And pray that they feel and know this community of Emmanuel is a safe place for them, too.

So, on September 10th, just as the school year has started, we're going to bless our teachers and students with a Backpack blessings. Students: bring your backpacks with you on Sunday morning to church!

Are you and your family struggling this year? Do backpacks and school supplies feel like a huge financial struggle? Let Pastor Leanne know, we want to help lighten that burden.

Pray for our students this year, for their safety and their learning, for who they are and who they are becoming.

Sunday School starts on September 10th for the year!

families are moving into independent housing. 1 family has moved into a transitional housing program and the other has moved in with family.

Thanks to everyone who has provided meals or in person volunteering - especially Charlotte who has volunteered many hours.

If you are interested in helping in any way, please contact Sue Stelling or Charlotte Voigt.

Our Singing Bowl donations for September will continue to support local food pantries at a time when their supplies are traditionally the lowest. So far we have a little over $60 donated and a Food Pantry has resources to use our dollars to buy as much as $180 worth of items. One in 8 families are hungry and food insecure.

Here are four reasons why donating money over food helps more families in need:

- 1) Donated dollars can be turned into more meals. Food banks work with manufacturers, retailers, and farmers to secure healthy food. This means that when you donate a dollar, you're able to put more meals on the tables of families than if you donated food you'd purchased at the store.
- 2) Donations build healthier communities. Although non-perishable foods like rice, pasta and canned good donations are vital, no one can live healthy lives on non-perishable items alone. Your dollar donations can go toward more fresh fruits, vegetables, low-fat dairy, and lean proteins. These perishable items can't be directly donated through food drives but are vital for healthy lives.
- 3) Donated dollars can be used to combat food waste. By working directly with farmers, healthy fruits and vegetables that don't make it to the grocery store end up on the plates of families in need instead of a landfill.
- 4) Not all food pantries have the capacity for large food donations.

Food pantries can do a lot with our Singing Bowl donations. Thanks as always to a compassionate congregation.

The Family Promise static shelter program has been in operation since April 2023.

After four months, 10 families have stayed in this community shelter.

During the past few weeks, 7 families have been housed and successfully and have exited the program. 5 of the

Summer Book Study: All Who are Weary by Emmy Kegler

In All Who Are Weary, Emmy Kegler joins the reader on the long walk of reflection, understanding, and compassion, calling followers of Jesus back to ancient practices of lament, vulnerability, honesty, community, and hope. This book is not a map to a cure, nor a perfectly restorative prayer. Written with a wide community in mind — patients, but also parents and partners, coworkers and friends, pastors and therapists, and the whole church — All Who Are Weary points to the embodied grace known in Jesus, trusting in the promise of a lighter load for all. "Behold"

"Behold" is the 2023 theme for the Neighbors In Need offering. This year's focus is on environmental justice. Plastics, electronics, and other non-compostable wastes are being shipped across and even tossed into our waterways, launched into space as well as buried in landfills. As people of faith we believe these are egregious acts damaging our world. We must do better as stewards of our planet!

One-third of the Neighbors In Need offering supports the Council for American Indian Ministry. Two-thirds are used by Justice and Witness Ministries to provide grants to UCC churches and organizations as well as supporting a variety of justice initiatives.

Please join us in supporting this year's NIN "Behold" campaign at Emmanuel UCC. We will be collecting the offering on October 1, 2023. Special Neighbors In Need envelopes will be available next to the offering plate in the Sanctuary. We thank you for your support and generosity.

Emmanuel is now registered with iGive, which is a free service to causes and members. Since 1997, iGive has grown to 350,000+ members supporting 150,000+ causes and raised over $10 Million!

- iGive members generate donations by shopping online at any of their 2,000+ Stores.
- There are no added costs, obligations, nor any hidden fees.
- You don't need to enter any codes, notify the store, or iGive. It's all automatic!

SHOPPING: iGive is a rebate program where iGive members have the opportunity to donate their rebate to their chosen cause. iGive receives compensation beyond the posted donation amounts, and many stores pay to advertise on our site. When iGive members shop via our special links, an "iGive Cookie" is assigned to your browser. This tells the store, "Here is an iGive Member" using a meaningless member ID number. The store reports back with this number and the purchase amounts so we can calculate the donation to your cause. iGive.com never has access to any payment information.

Creation Care...The Wisconsin Conference Creation Care Team to invite you to attend one of the two Creation Care retreats we've planned for this fall. The cost for each retreat is $250 for two nights, with one-day options available.

On Friday and Saturday Sept. 29-30, we'll gather at Moon Beach, one of the beautiful outdoor ministry sites operated by United Church Camps Inc. Our keynoter will be John Bates, a naturalist and author who sees his professional mission as helping people to develop environmental literacy. John has written 10 books on the Northwoods and Upper Midwest and has written a biweekly column, "A Northwoods Almanac," for the Lakeland Times for the past 31 years. The retreat at Moon Beach will include opportunities for worship and networking, along with workshops that will provide ideas for individuals and congregations that want to exercise care for God's beautiful, but fragile, Creation. Registration deadline is Sept. 21.

On Friday and Saturday Oct. 13-14, we'll meet at UCCI's Daycholah Center, on beautiful Green Lake. There, the keynote speaker will be the Rev. Daniel Cooperrider, a UCC pastor, writer and teacher. An avid outdoorsman, he writes at the intersection of theology, environmental ethics and climate justice and is the author of "Speak with the Earth and It Will Teach You," which will provide the theme for his talk. Daniel is co-pastor of Flicker Wild Church, a pop-up outdoor gathering. The rest of the program will mirror that at Moon Beach. Registration deadline is Oct. 5.

The news this summer has underscored the urgency of this kairos moment: Wildfires in Canada and on Maui, devastating heat waves in the United States and elsewhere, and a tropical storm that has produced historic warnings for Southern California make clear that now is the time for decisive action to protect our environment. Please join us this fall as we discern God's call to us amid the climate crisis.

Let Pastor Leanne know if you would like to attend one or both of these events and we will get you registration information.
